About

FUNclusion is an annual entertainment event for the whole family. We provide a multisensory platform for creative, cultural and educational activities and presentations - highlighting the work of individuals whose creative gifts go unnoticed due to social stigmas that marginalized people with disabilities.

We raise funds to produce the event and provide year-round inclusive programs throughout South Florida and other communities. Our curriculums allow disabled persons to develop the skills of independent living, learn about services and benefits available to them, and to participate in events and activities that promote inclusive social & professional networking.

Our 5th engagement is set to take place on Sunday, September 23rd, 2018 at the German American Club of Hollywood, Florida. The event will include live performances, speakers, a designer fashion walk, vendors, art and other activities. As a platform for upcoming talents, we adhere to our motto of inclusion when selecting performers during our scheduled auditions - working with professionals to create an effective step into their artistic careers.

Contact us at info@funclusion.org for sponsorship, performance and other opportunities.

Who We Are - Corporate Sponsors

Disability Programs and Training (D.P.T.) is committed to providing services, programs, and training resources for individuals of all ages who need assistance in gaining full independence regardless of disability.

Founded by Herbert Corona, Give Opportunities to Disability (G.O.D.) promotes inclusive programs and interaction through a variety of projects and partnerships throughout the South Florida community. The organization is tax exempt under IRS nonprofit code 501C3 and provides legal, administrative and marketing support in producing FUNclusion.

Founder & Community Leader

The will to live, key support and Faith have led Yesse to fulfill a purpose by sharing her inspirational story and speaking out for the rights and inclusion of persons with disabilities.

Yesse highlights these values and the importance of self-awareness through events, seminars, workshops and professional networking. She also founded Disability Programs & Training which offers services for training and preparation toward independent living opportunities. In 2013 she decided to incorporate her love of the arts through entertainment into an event, FUNclusion.

Having battled spina bifida since birth. Yesse's prognosis included limited mobility and dependency. Precisely through her early struggles is how she learned to overcome them to continue to empower the South Florida community .

Demographic & Statistics

Did you know that 1 of 10 people are born with a form of disability?

When you support people with disabilities, you influence their family and support system in a positive way!

By influencing community inclusion you are creating a positive brand impression in the individuals benefiting - as well as their family members and core support system.

The primary social challenges for people with disabilities are:

- Education
- Transportation
- Limited access
- Lack of support

According to a census of Florida there conducted in 2016, there were a reported number of over 2 million persons living with disabilities in the state. In Broward County alone, 208,793. The young adult (18-35) population with disabilities totaled an estimated 17,430 and a wide percentage are underserved.

FUNclusion presents entertainment that unites and helps dissolve the stigmas that create marginalization and inequality.

More than 60% of Funclusion attendees have a form of physical and mental disability.
